with concealed weapons in that friendly rural environment. Continuing: Any person who violates Section 23 of this act is guilty of an infraction. In addition to any other punishment imposed by the court, the defendant shall be required to go about unarmed for a number of days equal to six times the sentencing judge's age, divided by the number of the courtroom where the sentence is pronounced, subtracted from 250 and multiplied by 2, but in no case fewer than 180 days. Section 26: If the defendant fails to comply fully and completely with the going-about-unarmed requirement of Section 25 of this act, the defendant shall be taken into custody and after a hearing shall be transported by the sheriff of the county where the proceedings were had, to the facility or location where the Nebraska State Patrol conducts firearms training and there the defendant's trigger finger shall be shot off by Nebraska State Senator Jeanne M. Combs, using a pistol of her choice, but which must be approved by the superintendent of law enforcement and public safety. Execution of the punishment shall be without the benefit of any type of anesthesia other than flavored malt liquor. That's a nod to Senator Janssen and the ones he usually supports. Section 27.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In case of the death, sickness, absence, cold feet or inability to act, then Senator Jeanne...Senator Combs shall in writing, with the approval of the superintendent of law enforcement and public safety, designate and appoint a suitable and competent person to act for her as shooter in any particular case, and I will amend this to say, however, in no case shall it be Senator Ernie Chambers. Thank you, Mr. President, and when I'm recognized I will continue my discussion of this bill.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. You've heard the opening on AM1238. Mr. Clerk, motion on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend his amendment with FA548. (Legislative Journal page 961.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, to open on FA548 to your amendment.
